Suite Escape THE BETSY, SOUTH BEACH

An antidote to the art deco overload at the top of Ocean Drive, the Betsy, still fresh off a $40-million renovation, feels more Savannah than South Beach, offering a place to relax in a splendor that's not so Starck. Small rooms come with plush standards (Frette linens, Malin+Goetz amenities) and understated plantation glamour, while the common areas—a leafy lobby, as if Ralph Lauren went on safari; BLT Steak outpost; roof-deck lounge/open-air spa; and a sultry, bordello-esque basement speakeasy called B Bar—embody a vibe less glitzy than grown-up, belying the area's typical collagen glow and Eurotrash thump. 1440 Ocean Dr., Miami Beach; (305) 531-6100; TheBetsyHotel.com
