

SKY

DELTA

OUR WORLD NOW

The people, places
and things that make us happy—
plus the happiest
spots on the planet

And the magical mojo of
Neil Patrick Harris

+

Why
London
Now

JANUARY 2011

WHEELS UP //

Lifestyle

Trends, tastes and talk.

“We need to take action and keep the blue fin from going fast.”

—Adrian Grenier, actor

Style Inspiration // Miami

While the booming arts scene and recent hotel redux may have brought the heat back to Miami, it is the always-present culture and sophisticated style that keep us coming back.

Go There:

Part sun tanning and sipping cocktails, part hopping arts scene, Miami is quickly becoming not only one of the most fun-loving cities, but one of the most culturally diverse and creative communities in the world. In between perusing the galleries in the Wynwood Arts District, grab a Cuban at Enriqueta's Sandwich Shop before indulging in a little retail therapy. Find Pucci and Pierre Cardin at C. Madeleines or check out the curated collection of contemporary designers at The Webster. The Betsy Hotel for dinner at BLT Steak. Make sure not to miss B Bar and have a bartender at the basement soakaev whip up a Salsa Queen. thebetsyhotel.com

—Elizabeth Doyle

Get the Look:

1 Parade necklace by Dainiro, $945, dainiro.com
2 Midas candle set by Design Within Reach, $30-$70, dwr.com
3 Feltier beach towel by Hermès, $530, hermes.com
4 Flairing stir sticks, $475, Angworks.com
5 Swim trunks by Number Lab, $205, numberlab.com
6 Clutika suede sneakers by Keds, $75, keds.com 7 Purse by Nancy Gonzalez, $2,200, nancymarquez.com
8 In the Spirit of Miami Beach (Assouline), $24.95, amazon.com
9 Bamboo sunglasses by Plectech, $95, plectech.net
10 Bathing suit, $195, and cardigan, $275, both by Tory Burch, toryburch.com
11 Amaya hat by Helen Kaminski, $275, helenkaminski.com

