Whether you're planning a lazy, bathrobe-over-PJs weekend escape or a romantic outing (Valentine's Day is coming...), these hotels have room service that goes far beyond the warm lettuce and basic burgers. You don't even have to make a reservation at a Jean-Georges or José Andrés restaurant—they'll come to you.

Why we love it: Last year, chef Laurent Tourondel turned his flagship BLT Steak & Seafood restaurant at The Betsy into the more Miami-centric LT Steak & Seafood, commingling classic steakhouse favorites with Latin American dishes. The all-day, in-room dining menu reflects this transition: Seafood ceviche “leche de tigre” and the Betsy Cuban sandwich compete with Tourondel’s signature Butcher Burger and his memorable 16 oz. New York strip steak.
