Public Art

The Betsy Orb (in The Alley) is an egg-like sculpture that serves as a third-floor skybridge between the historic Betsy Hotel and a neighboring building (formerly the Carlton Hotel). Its function is to physically and symbolically connect the two wings of the hotel and to act as a piece of public art.

The Betsy Poetry Rail (in The Alley) is an homage to global poets who have shaped Miami literature by including their diverse, historic, and contemporary voices – with words cut by water jets into steel. Stop by the piece to read poetry by Muhammad Ali, Richard Blanco, Adrian Castro, Chenjerai Hove, Langston Hughes, Donald Justice, Campbell McGrath, Geoffrey Philp, Carlos Pintado, Hyam Plutzik, Gerald Stern, and Julie Marie Wade.

Zimbabwean Shona Art (in the Atrium) is a modern stone sculpture collection, from a movement that emerged in the mid-20th century, drawing on ancient traditions of stone carving from the Great Zimbabwe civilization. The collection is on loan from the Plutzik Goldwasser Family.
