The Alley returns with an elevated menu that serves as a love letter to traditional Italian flavors.

Bringing back its beloved trattoria-style pizzeria, The Alley returns to Miami Beach after closing its doors in 2020. Serving a finely curated selection of Italian cold cuts, guests can expect artisanal pizzas, charcuterie-style specialty cheeses, decadent and creative desserts like the vanilla and mushroom popcorn soft serve and more fan favorites. Helmed by award-winning chef Laurent Tourondel, the elevated menu features newly imagined additions while brick oven pizzas remain at the heart of the restaurant. Whether you order shrimp scampi pizza, the freshly added Francese, or the Quattro Formaggi e Pepe, each dish will transport you away from South Beach and into the heart of Italy. Complete with fresh seasonal ingredients, sweet desserts and an enhanced cocktail menu, The Alley's welcome return breathes fresh Italian flavor back into Miami's culinary scene. 1433 Collins Ave., Miami Beach, @thealley
